

Socialist Alliance says:

TROOPS OUT

HOWARD OUT

The Liberal government have given us the brutal war on the people of Iraq, the war at home against workers and trade unions, increased uni fees, and have destroyed Medicare — while they are giving tax cuts to the richest and scapegoating vulnerable refugees.

SOCIALIST ALLIANCE is campaigning for a government by working people, for working people. We want policies that put people before profits, workers before shareholders, medicare not warfare, childcare centres not detention centres.

LINDA WALDRON is the Socialist Alliance candidate for the seat of Gellibrand. Linda was an organiser of last year's Footscray rally against police racism, with the local Somali community. She has supported union picket lines and campaigns in the West for better pay and conditions and against casualisation of work, and has organised local protests against the war on Iraq. Linda has been politically active since 1998 in many campaigns to support society's most marginalised: to free East Timor, for refugee rights, and for women's liberation. Linda lives in Ascot Vale and is a worker at Melbourne Zoo.

SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

HUMAN NEED, NOT CORPORATE GREED. Increase taxes on the rich and big business. Cut military spending. Re-allocate this money to community services and the environment.

BRING THE TROOPS HOME NOW. Not at Christmas or “when the job’s done”. Every day Australian troops are in Iraq lends this brutal occupation undeserved credibility.

FREE THE REFUGEES. Detention is inhuman and expensive. Refugees can make a valuable contribution to society and should be given full residency rights.

RESTORE MEDICARE. Universal free health care including dental, optical and other services. No two-tier “safety net” system.

FREE PUBLIC EDUCATION from primary school to university level. End private school funding, abolish uni fees, more teachers and smaller classes.

DEFEND MILITANT UNIONS. Casualisation, low pay and overwork are ruining people’s lives. We need unions that aren’t afraid to fight the bosses and shareholders.
