For social justice, democracy, peace & a healthy environment

Socialist Alliance is not just another "opposition" party, we want to build a different Australia, where the community, not the corporations, owns and manages the wealth we create.

Howard's way...
$43 million a day on war.
$14.7 billion over 4 years in tax cuts for those earning over $52,000/yr.

Sue Johnson is the Socialist Alliance candidate for Grayndler. She is a union delegate with the Public Service Association and is leading strike action against the Carr Labor government's cuts to the NSW public service.

Sue lives in Marrickville and was the Socialist Alliance candidate for Grayndler in the 2001 federal election.

"My campaign will focus on ending two wars," says Sue. "One war is on the people of Iraq. Millions of people have opposed the war. We can do something about it by pulling Australian troops from the US-led military occupation."

"The other war is on workers here. Howard has been a disaster for working people. $43 million is spent on the military every day. This money should be spent on health, education and social services."

"We need solidarity, not attacks on Muslims, refugees and our civil liberties."

"Our first task is to get rid of the Howard government. Socialist Alliance supports every protest and strike against the Howard regime. But we also need to strengthen the voice for left wing policies at the ballot box."

“On too many issues Mark Latham plans to keep the Howard regime in tact. Latham says he wants a more compassionate approach to refugees. But he plans to keep the Liberals' policy of locking up asylum seekers and be even 'tougher than the Liberals' on 'border protection.’”

“Latham says he values education and universal health care. But he has lined up with the Liberals to support another round of tax cuts, rather than supporting higher social spending.”

“Our message is kick Howard out. But we also want to see the biggest possible vote to the left of Latham.”

“You can maximise your vote by voting 1 for the Socialist Alliance and then giving your preferences to the Greens and Labor.”

“We want a world in which the democratic demands of the people are carried out; a world based on need and not profit; where solidarity rather than self-interest is the spirit of the age.”

Education for all...

In the federal Seat of Grayndler there are 18 private schools. Their estimated grants from the federal government for 2004 total almost $30 million.

Work out how much your public school gets:

2004 federal government funding per public school student:
$504 (primary student)
$747 (secondary student)

Fund education not tax cuts
