

David Glanz and members of the Socialist Alliance campaigning for more staff at Moreland Centrelink.

Troops out of Iraq
Sack Howard –
not Kodak workers

- 2 Archer, Toby
Australian Greens
- 7 Isherwood, Noelene W
Citizens Electoral Council
- 5 Hamilton, Blair
Liberal
- 4 Stone, Robert
Democrats
- 3 Thomson, Kelvin
Australian Labor Party
- 6 Suraci, Deborah
Family First

Number all boxes to make sure your vote counts.

1 GLANZ, DAVID
Socialist Alliance
for Wills

MAXIMISE YOUR VOTE: Send a strong message to Latham that we want more than warmed-over Liberal policies. If David Glanz is not elected, your vote will go to the Greens and then to Labor.

SENATE: Vote Socialist Alliance 1 above the line. Preferences go to Your Voice, Greens then Labor.

- Troops out of Iraq now ● Free the refugees ● No more union-bashing
- Tax the rich ● Free education
- Defend and extend Medicare

After election day the Socialist Alliance will still be active ... in the unions, the peace movement, fighting for refugee rights – against oppression and exploitation everywhere. Why not get active with us?

Yes, I'd like to join the Wills branch of the Socialist Alliance.

Name:

Address:

Email:

Phone:

I enclose a cheque/money order payable to Socialist Alliance for $6 (high school), $12 (unwaged), $24 (low waged) or $60 (high waged) for a year's dues.

Mail to Socialist Alliance, PO Box 2023, Lygon St North, East Brunswick 3057.

www.socialist-alliance.org

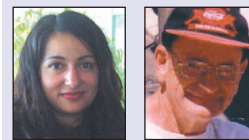

9386 4815 or wills@socialist-alliance.org

Moreland Council elections: November 27

Socialist Alliance will be standing in the elections for Moreland Council.

We are for:

- A fighting council, that mobilises the community to demand more funds from the state and federal governments.
- Taking all swimming pools back into council hands and increasing staffing to ensure safety.
- Cutting senior executive salaries and putting the money into home help and meals on wheels services.

NORTH-EAST WARD: Tessa Theocharous and Brian Maher.

SOUTH WARD: Judy McVey and Terry Costello.